Take the Customer Survey

Parents Who Host Lose the Most is a public awareness program educating communities and parents about the health and safety risks of serving alcohol at teen parties. Since the program began in 2000, it has reached across all 50 states, Canada, Japan, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico.

To continue to improve our services and provide quality products, we ask that you take some time to complete our customer satisfaction survey. This survey will ask you questions about your history with Parents Who Host, products you use, and satisfaction with the program. We would also like to hear from you about products you would like to see made available in the future, so be sure to include your ideas in the survey.

We greatly appreciate your honest and thoughtful feedback.

This survey should take approximately 10 minutes.

Downingtown West students discourage parents from hosting underage parties

Earlier this year, students from Downington West High School in Downington, PA reminded the parents in their community that serving to minors is unhealthy, unsafe, and unacceptable. Working with Communities That Care of Greater Downington, students placed Parents Who Host Lose the Most stickers on beer cases.

Communities That Care of Greater Downington focuses on preventing and reducing substance use among youth and strengthening community collaboration in prevention efforts.

Students furthered their efforts by passing out window stickers, yard signs, and informative brochures to educate parents on the dangers of providing alcohol to minors.
