PAX TOOLS FOR HUMAN SERVICES

This training provides trauma-informed evidence-based behavioral strategies for human service professionals who work in behavioral health, treatment, and recovery. These practical strategies can be used immediately in a variety of settings to promote the development of self-regulation, reduce conflict, and improve relationships between those giving and receiving treatment as well as with young people. The approach of this initiative provides an opportunity to model and practice tested and proven strategies in a supportive environment. This 8-hour training is available in a live virtual format on a variety of dates and times.
