

The NIATx Model for Advancing Performance Strategies[®] (MAPS) in Prevention

FACT SHEET

This training equips coalitions with the skills and knowledge needed to design, implement, and sustain culturally responsive prevention efforts. By combining the Strategic Prevention Framework (SPF) with the NIATx Model for quality and process improvement, participants learn a structured approach to planning and delivering evidence-based strategies. The focus on cultural responsiveness ensures that interventions are tailored to the specific needs of diverse communities. Through a blend of workshops, webinars, and individualized technical assistance, coalitions gain practical tools to increase efficiency, deepen community impact, and foster measurable long-term success in their prevention initiatives.
